Overview

Five days of karst landscapes: a leisurely Li River cruise, Yangshuo backroads by bike and Longji.

Suggested journey

Part 1

The Li River is the reason many travelers come to Guilin. We take a small cruise through the stretch, then slow down in Yangshuo with a half-day of easy cycling between villages and

Part 2

A separate day climbs into the Longji rice terraces, where Zhuang and Yao villages sit among the hills. Walks are adjusted to the group's pace and the season.

Part 3

This is a gentle journey: private guiding, comfortable hotels and plenty of time for street food and tea.
